

EVENING VIEWING

OSIRIS – 'DUSK & NIGHT'

Pharaohs' Banquet

(With private viewing of the exhibition for Tutankhamun Hospitality guests)

This is a shared formal evening with a champagne and canapé reception and sumptuous three course Egyptian themed dinner. A maximum 250 people will be able to attend this event from various companies and of course, the programme includes private access to the Tutankhamun and the Golden Age of the Pharaohs Exhibition.

- Shared use of The Pharaohs' Palace hospitality suite from 18.30 to 23.00
- Private Viewing of the Exhibition (between 19.30 and 22.00)
- Champagne and canapé reception on arrival
- Drinks throughout the evening – beers, wine and soft drinks
- Themed three course Egyptian dinner
- Return trip to/from central London to The O₂ by Thames riverboat
- Audio guide to Exhibition, narrated by Omar Sharif
- Complimentary Souvenir Book
- Commemorative gift for each guest
- Cloakroom facilities
- Themed itinerary for each guest, including map, directions and entrance passes
- Attendance of experienced event management staff throughout.

We have the following dates available:

Tuesday 20 May 2008	£299
Tuesday 17 June 2008	£299
Tuesday 22 July 2008*	£275
Wednesday 13 August 2008	£259

All prices per person and exclusive of VAT.

 Lord and Lady Carnarvon will be in attendance and will mix with your guests to give your evening that extra 'wow' factor. Lord Carnarvon will also give a small talk about his Great Grandfather's relationship with Howard Carter and provide you and your guests with an insight into the discovery of Tutankhamun's tomb.*